1. OVERVIEW

1.1. Scope

- 1.1.1. MA has provided the following clarification and descriptions regarding the powers and authorities of accredited Officials.
- 1.1.2. This document is relevant to any entity seeking to hold an MA official accreditation, holders of MA official accreditations, any event Organiser and/ or Relevant Controlling Body and/ or any entity responsible for organising an MA permitted event.
- 1.1.3. The regulations, clarifications and descriptions contained in this document should be read and applied in conjunction with the current version of the MA Manual of Motorcycle Sport.

2. OFFICIALS POWERS AND AUTHORITIES

2.1. General

- 2.1.1. In the administration of the GCRs, the powers and authorities of the RCBs are exercisable by and through Officials. An Event must not take place, and an Event permit is not valid, unless it takes place under the direction and control of the Key Officials
- 2.1.2. For these purposes, the RCBs may accredit any one or more of the following Officials:
- a) Key Officials:
 - i) Stewards or Referees,
 - ii) Race Directors,
 - iii) Clerks of Course,
 - iv) Race Secretaries,
 - v) Technical Officers (formally Scrutineers)
 - b) Operational officials:
 - i) Marshals,
 - ii) Timekeepers,
 - iii) Eligibility Technical Officers,
 - iv) Judges,
 - v) Observers,
 - vi) Handicappers,
 - vii) Starters,
 - viii) Final Control Officials,
 - c) Other accredited officials:
 - i) Announcers,
 - ii) Track Inspectors,
 - iii) Alcohol Testing Officer.

2.2. The Accreditation of Officials

- 2.2.1. MA, or an SCB on behalf of MA, may issue, renew, recategorise or revoke an official's accreditation. The form of an official's accreditation will be as prescribed in the bylaws.
- 2.2.2. No person will be issued with an official's accreditation unless that person has achieved the minimum required standards from training or at a training course established.
- 2.2.3. An accreditation for a key official must not be issued to person under 18 years of age. An accreditation for an operational official must not be issued to a person under the age of 16 years.
- 2.2.4. An official's accreditation may remain in force for four years from the day of its issue.
- 2.2.5. An application for an official's accreditation and for the renewal or re-categorisation thereof must be:
- To the RCB having authority in the State or Territory in which the applicant ordinarily resides,
 - In the prescribed form.
- 2.2.6. An RCB which orders an investigation into the conduct of an event, may stand down any official involved in the subject event, until the investigation is concluded.
- 2.2.7. The RCB responsible for issuing the permit must approve the nomination of the appropriately accredited Key Officials for any event.

2.3. Categories of Officials' Accreditations

2.3.1. Officials':

- Are accredited at the following levels and must be appropriately endorsed
 - Level 1 – Operational Official only,
 - Trainee,
 - Level 2 – Club / Inter-club / Zone level,
 - Level 3 – Open event / State Championship level,
 - Level 4 – MA Series and National Championship level,
 - International.
- Are accredited in the following disciplines:
 - Dirt Track,
 - Enduro,
 - Minikhana,
 - Motocross,
 - Trial,
 - Road Racing,
 - Speedway,
 - Supercross,
 - Track,
 - Supermoto.
- May be endorsed with more than one discipline category.
- The RCB may, where appropriate, approve the use of officials that have accreditation which is not aligned with the level of the event.
- Only officials holding the appropriate Level 2, 3 or 4 accreditations can be appointed to a "Key" official role.

2.3.2. An accredited official:

- Must not carry out any duty or function to which that official's accreditation category does not apply, but may have an assistant whose accreditation is endorsed with a different accreditation category,
- May apply for a different category of accreditation. An application for variation must be dealt with in the same way as an application for an accreditation,
- May not, without the authority of the Clerk of Course, compete in any competition at which the official is officiating,
- Must comply with the GCRs and with the proper directions of any official having authority under the GCRs to impose such directions,
- Must carry out all duties honestly, diligently, and fairly,
- Must be in attendance no later than one (1) hour prior to the official start time of the event (including practice) and remain until the completion of their duties at the conclusion of the event.
- An assistant may be appointed to any role and acts by assisting the official to carry out their duties. The assistant cannot act as a replacement for that Official.
- A Deputy may be appointed to an official role but must hold the appropriate accreditation for that position. The Deputy may take the position of the Official if required and holds the same authority whilst acting in that role.
- May not hold more than one key role at an event.

- 2.3.3. MA may, either independently or in conjunction with other RCBs conduct official's training courses. The content of the courses must:
- Have regard to the various disciplines of the sport,
 - Provide practical and theoretical training,
 - Be as prescribed from time to time in by-laws.
- 2.3.4. No person may compete at any event to which they have been appointed a key official, with the exception of the Race Secretary, as stipulated in the Race Secretary role description.
- 2.4. Stewards
- 2.4.1. An RCB must appoint one or more accredited Steward for any event and, if more than one Steward is appointed, those Stewards may collectively or individually exercise the powers set out in this Rule.
- 2.4.2. Where more than one Steward is appointed under this Rule the RCB must nominate a senior Steward, whose determination on any matter in relation to the event will be binding.
- 2.4.3. In the absence of a jury, and subject to Item 2.6, Stewards of an event have supreme control and authority over the conduct of that event and may:
- Amend any SR applicable to the event if, in the opinion of the Steward, exceptional circumstances arise requiring amendments,
 - Amend the program for the event,
 - Give any instruction or direction to the Clerk of Course of the event,
 - Determine the time for the commencement and conclusion of the event,
 - Stop the event or any part of it,
 - Order any event to be re-started or re-run,
 - Hear and determine any protest,
 - Institute, hear and determine any prosecution for any offence committed during the event and impose any penalty or penalties under the GCRs,
 - Abandon any event provided that all entry fees must be refunded unless otherwise provided for in the SR for the event,
 - Order any competitor to submit to a medical examination to determine if the competitor is fit to participate in the event,
 - Order the administration of any fuel, drug, or other test,
 - Impose on a competitor or entrant any penalty of relegation time or points penalty, exclusion, fine or suspension as provided for in the GCRs,
 - Order any machine, which the Steward considers does not comply with the GCRs or the relevant SR, to be impounded at the end of the event and detained under the control or direction of the Steward for such period as may reasonably be necessary for it to be examined,
 - Do any act, publish any document and make any declaration, not inconsistent with the GCRs, which is necessary for the fair and proper conduct of the event,
 - Refer any matter to the RCB.
- 2.4.4. As soon as possible, and no more than five days after the conclusion of an event, a Steward of the Event must complete and deliver to the RCB an event report in the prescribed form which must include:
- A copy of the program,
 - The results of the event,
 - Total number of competitors,
 - A plan of the venue showing the location and number of falls resulting in the competitor receiving medical treatment at the venue and/or resulting in the competitor being transported to hospital,
 - The number of competitors transported to hospital including details of suspected injuries,
 - The number of spectators attending the event, and
 - The number of officials on duty at the event.
- 2.4.5. As soon as possible, and no more than 24 hours after a serious incident* occurs, a Steward of the Event must contact the RCB and provide a report on the incident, which must include:
- Details of the event and venue
 - A brief description of the incident describing when, where, and how the incident occurred.
 - The name/s of all competitors/officials/volunteers/spectators transported to hospital including details of suspected injuries,
- *A serious incident is where one or more participants have received severe and potentially life-threatening injuries.

2.5. Referee

- 2.5.1. The RCB must appoint an accredited Referee for any Speedway event.
- 2.5.2. The Referee primarily acts in an operational role in conducting the speedway Event.
- 2.5.3. A Referee has the same power, authority, and responsibilities as a Steward; refer Steward role description

2.6. Race Director

- 2.6.1. The RCB may appoint an accredited Steward to act as Race Director for any RCB Series.
- 2.6.2. The Race Director's responsibilities are:
 - a) To ensure proper observance of the GCRs and SRs,
 - b) To ensure the efficient running of any competition,
 - c) To ensure effective communication between the Promoter and the Steward.
- 2.6.3. The Race Director shall have over-riding authority in relation to:
 - a) The control of competition, including modifying the program,
 - b) The stopping of any competition,
 - c) Starting procedure.
- 2.6.4. A Race Director may:
 - a) Amend any series SR if, in the opinion of the Race Director, exceptional circumstances arise requiring amendments,
 - b) Amend the Series program,
 - c) Institute, according to the GCRs any prosecution for any offence committed during an event,
 - d) Do any act, publish any document, and make any declaration, not inconsistent with the GCRs, which is necessary for the fair and proper conduct of the series.

2.7. Clerk of Course

- 2.7.1. The RCB responsible for issuing the permit must approve the nomination of an accredited Clerk of Course for any event.
- 2.7.2. Subject to the control and direction of the Steward or Race Director of an event, the Clerk of Course is responsible for its conduct and for that purpose may:
 - a) Inform and instruct operational officials,
 - b) Inspect the venue and do whatever is necessary to ensure the venue is fit for the purpose of the event,
 - c) Ensure that all operational officials are appropriately carrying out their duties,
 - d) Receive any protest and convey it to the Steward,
 - e) Impose on a competitor or entrant any penalty of exclusion or relegation or any time or points penalty or fine as provided for under the GCRs,
 - f) Stop any event,
 - g) Exclude any competitor from any competition for any reason provided for in the GCRs,
 - h) Exclude from any competition, any machine which the Clerk of Course considers to be dangerous,
 - i) Order any competition to be re-started or re-run,
 - j) Collate all necessary information from any operational official and present it to the Steward at the Steward's request and direction,
 - k) Do any act, publish any document, and make any declaration, not inconsistent with these Rules, which is necessary for the fair and proper conduct of the event,
 - l) Authorise any operational official to compete in any competition in the event,
 - m) Order any competitor to submit to a medical examination to determine if the competitor is fit to participate in the event.

2.8. Club Steward

- 2.8.1. Combined role of Steward/Clerk of Course
- 2.8.2. For the SCB to approve the nomination of an accredited Club Steward, the nominee must hold current Steward and Clerk of Course accreditation in the discipline being conducted.
- 2.8.3. Subject to SCB approval, the role of Steward and Clerk of Course may be combined at closed to club events where the anticipated number of participants is reasonably expected to be less than 65.
- 2.8.4. In circumstances where this occurs and where there could be a conflict between the duties of a Clerk of Course and the duties of a Steward, the role of the Steward as outlined in this document will prevail.

- 2.8.5. Where participant numbers exceed 65, the SCB may, after due consideration and risk management evaluation, approve the use of a Club Steward.
- 2.8.6. A Club Steward may not be used at Interclub events.
- 2.8.7. The combining of the roles is absolutely at the discretion of the SCB. The SCB may determine there is a requirement for separate Steward and Clerk of Course roles.
- 2.8.8. Should these roles be combined at an event, participants would lose the right of protest of a decision of the Clerk of Course to the Steward as defined in GCR's. Any protest directed to the Official undertaking the Club Steward role resulting from a penalty normally imposed by a Clerk of Course will be directed to and heard by the SCB. The protest must be accompanied by the prescribed fee. Any subsequent appeal will be heard by the RCB.
- 2.8.9. Where a Club Steward is appointed, that fact and the resultant impact on a participant's right of protest must be made known during the riders' briefing.
- 2.8.10. A Club Steward may not be a participant in the event.
- 2.8.11. The roles of the Referee and Clerk of Course at Speedway events cannot be combined under this rule.

2.9. Race Secretary

- 2.9.1. The RCB responsible for issuing the permit must approve the nomination of an accredited Race Secretary for any event.
- 2.9.2. The Race Secretary is responsible for the organisation and management of an event and for those purposes:
- Must comply with the instructions of the Steward and the Clerk of Course,
 - May publish notices and documents as directed,
 - May ensure that operational officials are informed of their functions and duties and properly equipped,
 - Must provide the Steward with a copy of the program and the results of competitions conducted at the event.
 - Trials and Traditional Enduro. For club and Inter-club Trials and Traditional Enduro the Race Secretary may compete in an event once they have completed their duties as described in the GCRs, and only with the authority of the Steward and Clerk of Course.

NOTE: This doesn't apply to other forms of competition under the broad "Enduro" discipline such as Sprint, Cross Country, Pony Express, Cross Country Sprint etc.

- All other disciplines. For club events, the Race Secretary may compete in the event if a suitably qualified* deputy or deputies are in place and with the authority of the Clerk of Course. The competing Race Secretaries cannot be in the same race/class and have sufficient time between the officials' sessions to ensure constant role coverage. If an official is injured while competing and cannot return to their officiating role, the other competing official may no longer compete and would need to continue their officiating role.
* Suitably qualified means an official with the appropriate level of officials' accreditation for the event. A trainee is not suitably qualified.

2.10.1 Technical Officer (formally Scrutineer)

- 2.10.2 The RCB responsible for issuing the permit must approve the nomination of an accredited Technical Officer for any event.

- 2.10.3 The Technical Officer is responsible for determining whether entered machines and protective clothing/equipment complies with the relevant technical regulations and for those purposes:

- Must comply with the instructions of the Steward and the Clerk of Course,
- Is responsible for the organisation and management of any technical apparatus and/or assistants
- Must provide a written report to the CofC at the conclusion of the event,
- A Chief Technical Officer may be appointed by the RCB or Promoter with regard to the status/level of an event, for the purpose of managing and representing the Technical Team.
- Use appropriate measuring equipment to verify the dimensions of the engine or any other controlled part of a motorcycle on the instruction of the Clerk of the Course and/or Steward.
- Are considered a Judge of Fact. When supplied by a Technical Officer, the measurements will be taken as fact from which there is no right of protest or appeal.
- Use methods and equipment as approved by these regulations to co-ordinate the testing of machines for the measurement of sound emissions.
- Are considered a Judge of Fact, and apart from the correction of errors, which may emerge on investigation, the results of the Sound Control Test shall be accepted as fact with no right of protest or appeal.

- i) Technical Officers shall not communicate their findings to another person except as they may be required to do so in the performance of their duties.
- j) For club events, the Technical Officer may compete in the event if a suitably qualified* deputy or deputies are in place and with the authority of from the Clerk of Course. The competing Technical Officers cannot be in the same race/class and have sufficient time between the officials' sessions to ensure constant role coverage. If an official is injured while competing and cannot return to their officiating role, the other competing official may no longer compete and would need to continue their officiating role.
* Suitably qualified means an official with the appropriate level of officials' accreditation for the event. A trainee is not suitably qualified.

2.11. Recreational Supervisor

2.11.1. The RCB responsible for issuing the permit must approve the nomination of an accredited Recreational Supervisor for any recreational activity event.

- d) Inspect the venue and do whatever is necessary to ensure the venue is fit for the purpose of the event,
- e) Inform and instruct operational officials,
- f) Exclude from the event, any machine or rider which the Recreational Supervisor considers to be dangerous,
- g) Stop the event or any part of it.

2.11.3. As soon as possible, and no more than five days after the conclusion of an event, a Recreational Supervisor of the Event must complete and deliver to the RCB event reports in the prescribed forms which must include:

- a) Recreational event report,
- b) Sign-on sheets for attendees,
- c) Incident reports, and,
- d) Medical/Injury reports.

2.11.4. As soon as possible, and no more than 24 hours after a serious incident* occurs, a Recreational Supervisor of the Event must contact the RCB and provide a report on the incident, which must include:

- a) Details of the event and venue
- b) A brief description of the incident describing when, where, and how the incident occurred.
- c) The name/s of all participants/officials/volunteers/spectators transported to hospital including details of suspected injuries,

*A serious incident is where one or more participants, which could include a member of the public, have received severe and potentially life-threatening injuries.

2.12.0 Operational Officials

2.12.1 In carrying out their duties, operational officials must:

- a) At the beginning of the event report to the Clerk of the Course for instructions,
- b) Only use apparatus authorised under these GCRs,
- c) Provide the Clerk of Course with reports as required,
- d) Comply with the directions and instructions of the Steward/Referee and the Clerk of Course.
